. Favor of Fowler. REPUBLIC SPECIAL-Claimnail, O. June 17.-John J. Ryan Frank Fowler and other promoters of the Queen City Rack Track at Newport, met at Attorney Campbell's office to-day and Fowler. The management then issued an anouncement that the postponement of the meeting decided upon yesterday be retracted and stated that the track will positively open Saturday next as originally scheduled.

The meet will run for 190 days, with six races daily, three purses 120 and 120.

The track is outlawed by the Western funkey Club, but was recently recognized by the Eastern Jockey Club, under whose rules it will be run. There are over 20 horses at the track at present, and sixty more at Latonia, the owners of which it is said will enter the Newport same.

Ryan resigned owing to the several indictments which are held over him at St. Louis, but stated to-night that as soon as he gets rid of these cases he will again identify himself with the Newport races, which, he says, can be made a grand success.

CORN. Corn ruled easier the first part of the wasion on the excellent weather conditions. but later in the day there was a renewal of the buying which has been a feature for the last few days, and the market became extremely bullish, with trading quite active. July was in urgent demand late in the day by shorts, and, with light offerings, the prices of that delivery advanced sharply and the close was so higher at 50°c, after selling between 50°c and 50°c. Local receipts were 34 cars, with 50°c contract grade.

OATS. Oals were easy on the favorable weather nd the more assuring tone of the Government weekly crop bulletin. Later the marment weekly crop bunstin.
